

BY THE Lords Justices
AND COUNCIL.
A PROCLAMATION.

CHARLES PORTER, THO : CONINGESBY.

Whereas We find it necessary for the safe keeping of the Prisoners lately brought from Ballymore, that they be carried to the Island of Lambay, where they shall be provided with Tents for the Convenience of their Lodging, and also with Bread and other Necessaries, sufficient for their Subsistence. We do therefore expressly Charge and forbid all manner of Persons, that they do not presume, upon any pretence whatsoever, to come unto the said Island with any Boat or other Vessel: And if any shall be found offending herein, the Boat or Vessel wherein such Person or Persons shall come to the said Island shall be seized and forfeited to Their Majesties Use, and disposed of accordingly; And the Person or Persons so offending, shall be imprisoned, and be further prosecuted with the utmost Severity of the Law.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the 17th day of June, 1691.
